

Lagavulin Charred Oak Cask 11 Years Old

Islay

Le troisième whisky de la série Offerman Edition, Charred Oak Cask est vieilli dans des fûts de chêne américains et européens qui sont rabotés puis fortement carbonisés. Nick Offerman recommandant un faux-filet poêlé pour aller avec ce single malt. Exactement ce que Ron Swanson de Parks and Recreation aimerait : steak, bois et whisky !

The third whisky in the Offerman Edition series, Charred Oak Cask is aged in American and European oak casks that are shaved down then heavily re-charred, and is said to be the “perfect pairing for well-barked, medium-rare steak” with Nick Offerman recommending a seared ribeye to go alongside it. Just what Parks and Recreation’s Ron Swanson would love: steak, wood and whisky!
